COUNCIL MEETING #06-22-21
June 22, 2021

Csl. Taipana – There have been a lot of fires in the community. Who checks the fire extinguishers in the homes and buildings?

Csl. Newman – Housing, stores, GN and Hamlet each check their own buildings. Replace fire extinguisher if a homeowner is not sure if it is still good.

Csl. Metuituk – Glad to see firefighter training in the community this week. All firefighters need the training.

-What can be done about the Rocks in front of the Northern Store?

Csl. Ho – The men's group has been cleaning up around the Elder's center and other areas in town and they have done a good job. Thank you to them.

Csl. Newman – Are more Bylaw or night watchman being hired?

-Stop signs need to be checked to ensure they are installed at each intersection

Csl. Kuliktana – What are we doing with the three trailers that were purchased for the 24-hour care facility?

- Council should go on the radio and announce for people not to be drunk during the pandemic.

- Food for thought, Change the name of the community back to Coppermine

Mayor Kuliktana – Encourage the community to stay at home if Drunk. Flyers could be put up at the stores.

D.M. McMenemy – Donated Clothes will be given to the Hamlet to distribute to pre-natal program.

-No fire escapes on the 10 plex buildings

Mayor – MLA could help bring the fire escape issue to the Minister for Housing

Csl. Newman – Fire Marshall said that 10 plex buildings are no longer built like that.

Csl. Metuituk – Wooden ladder attached to the wall of the 10 plexes should be a basic requirement.

Mayor – Nothing at this time.
